Fritz's Poem: Women On The Sixth Floor

Yarra Ranges Film Society

12-6-2018

We were told., it was a historic day
when on the world-stage this charade did play
Back home played something to adore
The movie "the women on the 6th floor".
It was so real as it all played out amongst people you never heard about.
There was drama and excitement, despair and hope
as with reality everyone had to cope.
There were serious and comical situations brought on by hardship and infatuation.
I found it engaging and an utter delight

Thanks Fritz

The recent Film Festival was a great success even though the weather was amazing, with rain, hail, strong winds and freezing cold conditions. It didn't seem to keep people away!

Special thanks must go to the Volunteers who did a wonderful job taking tickets, raffle ticket sales and gathering Starbox votes after each film. Welcoming people is a big part of a successful weekend and all Society members are so good at this. Thank you for all this as a Festival cannot run without your valuable help. We had a lot to be proud of during this weekend. Thank you!!

The local community was involved again by offering lunches and each of the five cafes did a great job in delivering yummy meals in such a narrow time frame.

The Arts Centre staff over the whole 3 days were professional, helpful, supportive and friendly in every way and special thanks to them for all they did.

We look forward to the remainder of the year with an interesting selection of films to view, discussions to be had and friendships enjoyed.

Warburton film festival

It was a dark, wet stormy night,
But in Warby things turned out alright.
The nasty weather soon was gone
and the festival of films was on:
Tradition and appreciation of classy films plus celebration
of achievements and community.
It does not get any better - see!
Great entertainment does the trick,
The film society gets my tick.

Thanks Fritz

This year's Golden Shorts Award winner IRONY by Radheya Jegatheva was an absolute stand-out.
