AGUIRRE, THE WRATH OF GOD

Germany- 1972 Historical Drama 95min M

In the 16th century, the ruthless and insane Don Lope de Aguirre (Klaus Kinski) leads a Spanish expedition in search of El Dorado. Possibly director Werner Herzog's (and Kinski's) greatest film, Aguirre is a powerful, spell-binding portrait of a man obsessed, stunningly shot on location in the jungles of South America.

Fritz's Poem: I Am Not Your Negro

*"I'm Not your Negro", the film in July revived events long since gone by.
It made me think and made me face
the facts of injustice all over the place.
The rousing speeches, the movie scene
Showed vividly how things had been.
Confronting behaviour, it's so true
can be seen now- all around us - too.
Race - relations were so estranged.
I wonder how much has really changed.
It made me think and I think I'm right:
The problem's not totally black and white.*

Thanks Fritz
